Casa la Loma is perfect setting for a couple wanting a quiet, uninterrupted outlook upon an urban plot with a comfortable one level home and detached hobby room with car port on the side. Located on an established development, with no further builds, and full urban status in place, this home has been lived in since day one and was infact on of the first properties to be built. The two bed , two bath property has had certain addditions such as the large ensuite, the spacious covered terrace and indeed the detached hobby room / garage which the owners will register at the time of completion without a problem. Window have been upgraded, a new patio door installed and good regular maintenance and upkeep of painting and the gardens is very appara...(Ask for More Details!)
