Cortijo El Duende is a very large, urban, commercial and residential property located just below Comares in a small and pretty hamlet of Los Ventorros. It has very spacious rooms spanning over 500m<sup>2</sup> in build size plus rear vehicle access and various terraces with a pool in place at the back of the property. To the left there is a large, wooden folding door allowing garage access into a spacious room with vaulted ceilings, some roof repairs are necessary but huge potential for a Mechanics/Workshop/ Gallery even with a spacious store room at the back and a hatch connecting to downstairs basement area. Next door is the original shop space which has certain original features, a licence, a living room/ lounge area at the rear plus a well sized terrace.
