Casa Albolote is an exclusive new listing that sits on top of a hill, near the village of Vinuela. The access is concrete and there is a shaded car port, garage and large wooden building currently used as a workshop. The pool is 9m2 which is above average and has some terracing around it. There is also terracing around the whole house with some shaded seating areas and views to the surrounding mountains and countryside. Most of the property has been upgraded with quality fittings, including new upvc tilt and turn windows. The kitchen has also been upgraded to a high standard with lots of unit space, new appliances and an american fridge. There is also a very useful utility area. The lounge dining area is very light and spacious with patio d
