Cortijo Romero Uno was the first built property on the most established development in Vinuela. A rustic style, detached one level property with garage underbuild, shaped pool , mature gardens and a large roof terrace. The property offers a great balance of a rural style property with all the advantages of an urban plot including: panoramic views, a walled corner plot, concrete driveway, mains sewerage, townhall water, street lights and just a short drive to amenities. A few steps lead up to the double wooden entrance door and terrace and when opened you walk into a light, bright L/ shaped living area with vaulted ceilings, rustic terracotta floor tiles which have been sealed, a feature open fire place, new patio door leading directly out
