Villa Las Chozas certainly is going to appeal to any buyer specifically wanting impressive views. This property was originally built by a German builder therefore its structure and foundations are quality and of a good standing. Located just 5 minutes drive above Triana its only 20 minutes from Velez Malaga and 25 minutes from the coast. Speaking of the coast, it has distant sea views and its elevation allows almost 360 views of the green, terraced avocado and mango mountain sides. A fenced and gated plot the 300m concrete drive way leads up to a parking area and garage. The property was built over 25 years ago therefore you will notice the advantage of this is the size of the rooms, they are all large and oversized in my opinion. There are
