Casa Casquela is a one level Spanish style property that sits on 12,000 m<sup>2</sup> of land with a gated entrance and printed concrete driveway. The property has uninterrupted 360 degree views to the surrounding mountains and the land which is well established with various fruit trees including fig, olive and almond. There is a large terrace to the front of the property, great for outdoor dining and there is a covered car port and store room. Through the arched gate there is a courtyard with grape vines, a water feature and utility room. On the other side of the courtyard is a pathway that leads to a great entertaining area with a jacuzzi , kidney shaped pool that is solar heated and an outdoor kitchen/bbq area with lots of seating. There is an out
