Villa Vista San Jose is located in one of the most sort after developments where properties are rarely listed for resale due to its location , access and views, plus each property is of a varying design and size. This has to be one of the larger, westerly facing properties, on an elevated plot with views to the zafaraya pass and surrounding countryside. There is off road parking for 3 cars and the whole plot is fenced and gated with a large garage and useful storage underneath. The main living area is on the upper level with a good quality, fully fitted kitchen with an island in the middle and granite work tops. The lounge is very light with AC and a corner wood burner. There are patio doors from the kitchen and lounge which lead out onto a c
