Casa Jose Dolores a new listing with Villasolutions. If you are looking for a large property, with scope for even more development and within easy walking distance of shops and amenities this could be the right property for you. The property is urban, with all mains services and is on the edge of Puente Don Manuel with all the shops, bars, restaurants and other amenities. The entrance is via a vine covered terrace looking out onto a small orchard with various fruit trees. There is also plenty of off road parking in this area. You enter directly into a good size living space with fully equipped kitchen directly off the lounge. Off the kitchen is a lovely patio area that has original ovens and fireplace, which are in good order. The downstairs
