Cortijo Inma - exclusive property, set on a 5,000 sqm plot with an olive grove, offers unparalleled views of the Alcaucin Valley and Mount Maroma. The property itself is a two-story detached villa with three to four bedrooms, parking, storage, and a garage. While it needs some TLC and upgrading, the price reflects its potential. 80-90 established olive trees, stunning views of the national park and valley. Private pool, covered terrace with arches. Gated access and secure parking. Potential for renovation and expansion, this property has huge potential and is a great opportunity for those looking for a country retreat or rental investment.
