Casa Tejeda - discover peace and privacy in this beautifully reformed detached two-bedroom home. Nestled in a tiny, peaceful hamlet with no road noise, this home offers the ideal retreat for those seeking quiet country living. There is communal parking just a short walk from the property, with the option to bring a small car directly onto the plot through the gated entrance. Inside, the home is full of character and built to last, featuring solid thick stone walls (60–70 cm) that provide natural insulation — keeping it cool in summer and warm in winter. The living area includes a wood-burning stove (installed two years ago). The main bedroom comfortably fits a super king-size bed, includes built-in wardrobes, and opens directly onto
