Recently reduced and open to offers! Casa Katrina is a charming four bed property on the edge of the Los Romanes village with one of the best reforms I have seen of recent years in this location. Lake views, good access, a garage/ store room and essentially two independent self contained apartments finished to a high standard there are certainly not many opportunities of this scale at such a price! The total build is 212m² plus you need to allow for two kitchens and two lounges, the upper apartment has a balcony terrace with utility area and the lower apartment has an attractive picture patio door off the lounge which frames the uninterrupted lake and mountain view with a smaller balcony. The quality of the reform is clear to see from the c...(Ask for More Details!)
