Casa en las Nubes is a unique opportunity for a few different reasons. Firstly this property has been fully reformed including all new electrics, plumbing, waste, floor tiles, walls, terracing, bathrooms and high quality kitchen where by the current owner has transformed a typical Andalusian country property into a fully functional, modernised property whilst introducing certain key features and focal points around every corner. Located higher up the valley in Los Pavitos, this property sits on a modest plot 394m² yet every metre has been utilised and there are no possibilities of any further development surrounding the plot. So effectively it is low maintenance and private with some interesting feature such as a plunge pool and large detach... (Ask for More Details!)
