Granja Mondron is certainly a one of a kind property with serious potential to reform some outbuildings to create a mini complex with flexible accommodation. Located just outside the village of Mondron the main property is positioned on the corner and has compact living area with certain living areas homely and cosy, yet everything is practical with a fully equipped kitchen at the back, and there are three bedrooms upstairs with a general bathroom. To compensate for the limited internal space, there is a very well appointment walled courtyard terrace with good privacy and a plunge pool registered to the deeds. Over the road which acts as a public access just two other properties, are the outbuildings both of which were two Storey although o...(Ask for More Details!)
