Casa Siete Altos is a substantial property, located only a short distance away from Alcaucin village, with all of its amenities, including restaurants, bars, bakery, supermarket and more. It has the advantage of elevated views of the surrounding mountains and lake, low maintenance, good privacy, good security and all mains services as part of a small Urbanisation of detached properties. With tarmac access there is a very large double garage at road level which has been tiled and rendered. Up one flight of stairs, all the living area can be found on this level and a back door that leads into the kitchen. From the front porch you walk into an entrance hall with storage and the lounge diner which has taller than average ceilings, a wood burner...(Ask for More Details!)
