Exclusive to villasolutions: Casa Olivar is located on a very well established urbanization, with all mains services and close to all amenities. The property is fully walled and gated all around with various terraces on different levels. On the upper level of the terraces you will find a surprisingly large garden with extensive terrace area with open mountain views and a small private pool. Gardens are established but low maintenance plus there is external lighting. From the entrance porch, into the hall you will find a good size living/lounge area with a wood burner and patio doors leading out on to the side terrace, making it all very light and neutral plus a feature bay window. There is a fully fitted kitchen with all essentials which al...(Ask for More Details!)
