Exclusive listing to villasolutions: Cortijo Eveline is a very well reformed country property, with a good tarmac access road with lot's of character and great features, with solar hot water, very well established but low maintenance gardens and ample terraces with south west mountain and distant sea views. There is a big covered porch overlooking the mountains and the private pool, with the pool being on a lower level to the villa, linked by a couple of steps as the property is built on rock. On the lower level you will also find a detached Casita with a good size bedroom with a double bed, with an en-suite shower room and a small kitchen area with basic services. Inside the villa itself, you will find a lovely hall way with feature insert...(Ask for More Details!)
