Villa Las Huertas is a very well appointed, one level detached villa with fantastic views to Mount Maroma, on all main services except waste, located just outside of Alcaucin village. Its one of just a small cluster of newly build homes all finished and looked after to a high standard. The property has a well established, low maintenance garden with lots of different fruit trees, a private pool and an additional outside BBQ area. The property is fully walled and secure, with a double off road parking area, an outdoor workshop/storage room and ample terraces shaded with awnings and vines, finished in Moroccan style. Inside the villa there is a good size kitchen with all essentials, granite tops, integrated appliances and ample storage space,...(Ask for More Details!)
