Villa Las Colinas is an impressive two story property, built on solid rock with interesting rock features, landscaping and great access just off of a concrete road. The plot is elevated with stunning south facing views toward Mount Maroma and the surrounding countryside, it is also fully fenced with a gated entrance and 100% privacy. On the top level there is an 8x4 pool with terracing and a pergola for shade, a built in bbq area and a water feature. To the side of the house there is a courtyard with a fireplace and awnings, a great area for entertaining. All around the top level is a covered terrace with arches where you can enjoy the views. You can enter the house via a kitchen door or the patio doors off the terrace. The lounge diner is ...(Ask for More Details!)
