REDUCED: Villa Los Cortijillos nestles in a quiet hamlet offering peace and quiet yet only a short drive to the village of Alcaucin where you will find bars, restaurants, shops, banks and medical centre. The entrance is via electric gates onto a large parking area leading to the rear terrace which offers complete privacy and stunning views over the Alcaucin valley. Whilst there is currently no pool the landscape offers itself to an above ground pool that would be level with the terrace. Entrance to the villa is via a typical large wooden Spanish door leading to the hallway. To the left is a good size kitchen with typical Spanish units and a utility room leading off this that has doors onto the terrace. An archway from the hall leads to the ...(Ask for More Details!)
