Villa del Pueblo is located on the third phase of a well established development and the single storey build, is approximately 10 years old. Located under the La Vinuela town hall, all services have been finished by the developer including tarmac roads, mains sewers, water and electric etc. The property sits on a fully enclosed, front line, enclosed and gated plot of 400m². A peaceful environment with unbeatable access and a number of bars and restaurants within a 4 minute drive. The lake views are very special and are certainly a major selling point to be seen on viewing! The villa itself is well built and has been modified from a three bedroom design to accommodate a large master bedroom with ensuite (walk-in shower) and direct access ont...(Ask for More Details!)
