Casita Antonio is four bed, one bath, fully urban quirky townhouse, set in the heart of La viÑuela village and only a short walk away from all main amenities. Entering the property from the ground floor you will find a good sized kitchen, a lounge and dining room, a good sized double bedroom, a separate main bathroom, and a covered courtyard, perfect for outdoor dining. Leading to the second floor of the property you will find three good sized double bedrooms, one of which has French doors leading out onto a small roof terrace which offers panoramic views over the village of La ViÑuela. This property is a great opportunity for someone looking for a project, and is also joined to the neighbouring property which is also on the market (casita...(Ask for More Details!)
