Molina Isabel is a very well restored old water mill which has been divided into three separate, self contained living areas. Located at the foot hills of the Al Caza National park the village of Alcaucin is just a couple of kilometers away. Tarmac road access leads to an off road parking area with shaded car port. This impressive 600m² build property has terracing right he way around including , pebble stone terraces, classic tiles and a swimming pool located in the top corner. The first apartment is the smaller of the three with a rustic kitchen, free standing wood burner and a mezzanine level for the bedroom. The middle accommodation is considered the main living quarters and really does have character oozing around every corner. This is...(Ask for More Details!)
