NEW LISTING: Casa Los Gomez is certainly a very unique and surprising property which has been lovingly reformed over the last 15 years to bring this 100-year-old, semi-detached property to life. It is bursting with character around every corner from the interior spaces to the exterior gardens and riverside location. From the outside one may discount this property, but rest assure upon viewing Casa los Gomez, you will not be disappointed as the properties size and quality restoration is clear to see. The property itself is located just of the old Velez Malaga road down a no through road which is shared only with your neighbour. It has outdoor parking and a large store room. The property consists of an entrance lounge with large feature wood
