Villa Eve stands in a prime lake view position and has the added benefit of being situated on urban land whilst the majority of the property has 100% PRIVACY due to its walled boundaries. After climbing the entrance stairway there is a landscaped garden and viewpoint located at the rear of the property which leads down to the off road parking space. All of the main living area can be found on this level which has been very well designed with a modern twist throughout. High quality kitchen with silastone work surfaces and clean edges, an open living room divided by a feature gas fire place embedded into a rectangular freestanding wall where you can find the dining space. Two patio doors flow out onto the open terrace which is partly covered ...
