REDUCED FROM 375,000€: Casa Lorraina is a very well appointment, newly painted, one level property with pool, manageable plot, garage, ample parking and open, panoramic views. Having been a successful rental for some years the current owners have spent recent months upgrading, cleaning, painting installing AC, brand new windows through out and getting the property ready for sale. They have done a tremendous job which means any new owner will have a very well conditioned property with minimal maintenance and cost for the first few years. This location is quiet and private with excellent access and close to amenities with a handful of neighbours so its not too isolated. Casa Lorraina does tick many boxes and to have a rare one level property w...(Ask for More Details!)
