Finca Zarate is certainly an ideal project for anyone searching for authentic, country homes as it has a lot of scope. The property shares an impressive concrete access with just two other neighbours, framed by over 1000 year old protected Algarrobo Trees. This property sits in between the two neighbours, although one side is a ruin. There is plenty of parking in front of the property where there is also a corral in front of the property which could possibly be changed into a pool or water feature of some sort. The property has a vine covered terrace at the entrance then you walk into the main lounge which has a bedroom leading off, although this could also be a dining room with original tiles throughout. There are two large rooms leading off...(Ask for More Details!)
